NEW AND BEAUTIFUL COMPOSITIONS.

BY

William Warren Bentley AND Theodore D. C. Miller, M.D.

Jays of Childhood. (Song and Chorus.)
Fine Words. Set to a taking Melody. 40 c.

Throwing Pebbles in the Stream. (Song and Chorus.)
A sprightly sentimental Song, which cannot but please everybody. Words and Music finely wedded together. 40 c.

Take Me in Your Arms Mamma?
A touching Song, founded on an incident occurring on the Atlantic Ocean Steamer. It is beautiful in sentiment, and will prove a favorite with all whose hearts have been betrayed. 40 c.

Hunting Four-Leaf Clover. (Song and Chorus.)
A popular Melody, will remind one of happy times picking Four-Leaf Clover. 40 c.

The Old Ruined Mill. (Song and Chorus.)
One of the Author's best efforts. You may almost see the Old Mill in its ruins, so graphically it is portrayed in the Words. A fine concert or parlor Song. Popular Melody. 40 c.

Wake Bonnie Bessie. (Song and Chorus.)
The Melody of this fine Song is after the Scotch air, and will be liked by all. 40 c.

Down on Coney Island Beach. (Song and Chorus.)
This Song will be enjoyed by all who frequent this great Summer Resort. Pleasing Melody. 40 c.

My Home by the Deep Rolling Sea. (Song and Chorus.)
Must become a general favorite, will carry all back to their childhood days. Taking Words and Melody. 40 c.

We are Growing Old Together. (Song and Chorus.)
One of those Songs which breathe forth a beautiful sentiment, which more find a response in many a heart. Fine Words set to equally fine Music. 40 c.

My Old Plantation Home so Far Away. (Song and Chorus.)
Written in the popular style of Plantation Songs, and will awaken within all an interest in the beautiful sentiments expressed. 40 c.

Grandfather's Cane. (Song and Chorus.)
Many Songs have been written about Grandpa's and Grandpa's, but the above Song is full of beautiful thoughts which will carry a blessing wherever rendered. 40 c.

Hiding in the Corn. (Song and Chorus.)
This Song will recall many happy hours of childhood, and will surely please all who give it a trial. 40 c.

Winnie Wane. (Song and Chorus.)
Beautiful Words set to a winning Melody, must have many admirers. 40 c.

Don't Shut Out the Moonlight, Mother! (Song and Chorus.)
The Song is unusually fine, and will touch many a heart and bewitch all who there are little tears again. 40 c.

The Old Willow Chair where Grandmother Sat. (Song and Chorus.)
Another Song carrying us back to childhood days. It must touch every heart by whoever sung. 40 c.

Save My Child?
A thrilling and beautiful Song, from an incident occurring on the burning of the Steamer Savannah. No singer in the land should fail of seeing it. 40 c.

I'll Meet You Sweet Bessie at Twilight. (Song and Chorus.)
Popular Melody. 40 c.

The Reason We Mortgaged the Farm. (Song and Chorus.)
Fine Descriptive Song. Suitable for Concerts. Reminds of the Old Homestead. 40 c.

It is Sweet to be Remembered. (Song and Chorus.)
Fine Words set to a taking Melody. 40 c.

Eight Bells at Sea. (Song and Chorus.) Composes piece to the "Pilot"
Fifty, written in the popular style. Begins lithograph title. Every singer should order it. 40 c.

Mother is Waiting to Welcome Her Boy.
Beautiful pathetic Song. Suited to Temperance work. 40 c.

Cap'd on the Ice. (Song and Chorus.)
Sprightly Sentimental Words set to a taking Melody, that must prove quite popular during the skating season. Read for it. 40 c.

Grandmother's Eyes have Grown Dim. (Song and Chorus.)
This composition is really one of the moral line, and must be held to be fully appreciated. Words fail to convey the beautiful sentiment expressed in this Song. Read 40 cents to the publishers and examine for yourself.

Little Sunshine Come to Me. (Song and Chorus.)
This little Song is full of Sunshine, and must prove a valuable addition to every singer's collection. 40 c.

Dora Blaine. (Song and Chorus.)
A popular sentimental Song that all lovers of music will be pleased with. 40 c.

While Waiting for the Cows to Come. (Song and Chorus.)
A descriptive Song, will take one back to the days spent on the Old Farm. It will almost make one feel young again, so expressive are the Words and Music. Do not fail to order it. 40 c.

Picking Up Gold in the Streets. (Song and Chorus.)
Fine humorous Song, descriptive of the class of people who come to our land from foreign shores, and expect to pick up gold in the streets. 40 c.

Flirting on Our Block. (Song and Chorus.)
Another humorous Song, illustrating the habit of how our young America while away the happy hours. Good Words and popular Melody. 40 c.

The Tie that Binds us Brothers. (Song and Chorus.)
Dedicated to the Knights of Honor throughout the United States. A fine composition, both Words and Music, and should be in the hands of every true Knight. 40 c.

The Old Dinner Horn. (Humorous Song and Chorus.)
This Song will bring to mind the merry songs of the Old Dinner Horn, and the happy days spent on the dear old farm. Fine Concert piece. 40 c.

Mother, Please Forgive Your Boy. (Song and Chorus.)
Written from a touching incident, will prove popular. 40 c.

A Sailor's Wife I Soon Shall Be. (Song and Chorus.)
Fine Words set to popular Music. A fine Sailor's Song. 40 c.

Old Snow Ball's Hair is Turning Gray. (Song and Chorus.)
A good plantation Song, with a fine sentiment running through the Words. Must please all. 40 c.

You May Speak, if You Like to, Papa. (Song and Chorus.)
Full of sentimental thoughts, just the Song to make one happy. 40 c.

The Time when We were Young. (Song and Chorus.)
Beautiful Words set to winning Melody. Will tell all hearts. 40 c.

When Counting Buds Brown. (Humorous Song and Chorus.)
This is a pleasing Song, and those in want of something to entertain with, will be pleased with it. 40 c.

'Tis Then, Sweetheart, I'll Dream of Thee. (Ballad.)
Beautiful sentimental Song. Must win all hearts. 40 c.

Let Us Catch the Golden Sunbeams. (Ballad.)
Beautiful Words set to a taking Melody. Fine Concert piece. 40 c.

Fly Birdie to Where Willie's Waiting. (Song and Chorus.)
A taking Song, which will find a welcome among all lovers of touching sentimental compositions. 40 c.

Good Nights and Fair Ladies. (Song and Chorus.)
This beautiful composition is dedicated to the Ladies' Legion of Honor, throughout the United States, and should be in general use among that Order. 40 c.

The Bright Side. The Nearer I Draw to Jesus.
Written from a touching incident connected with a Colonial Christian's experience. It is a beautiful composition, both Words and Music must prove popular. 40 c.

There are none of the pieces of music on this list which are not guaranteed by the publisher to give entire satisfaction. Also, each and everyone has an elegant picture, lithographed, or double colored title page, and printed from the best engraved music plates. My music is never out of print, and can be procured at any music store in the U. S. But the quickest and best policy is to send direct to me.

All music not on this catalogue constantly kept in stock, and will be sent, post-paid, on receipt of marked price. I keep the publications of all Music Publishers in America and Europe.

P.S.—To Music Teachers, Musicians, Professionals, Clubs, etc., my terms are the regular professional rates. But with a desire to have my publications more thoroughly introduced to your notice, also to give you a chance to re-dispose of copies with a profit, and to act as my agents through the States, I will allow you to make a selection of ten or more of my pieces, at one-half off of the marked prices.

N.B.—All of the above pieces are my own copyrights, and anyone infringing on the same, will be dealt with and punished to the full extent of the law.

Send money in Registered Letter or by Postal Order. Hoping to be favored with your patronage, I remain,

Your obedient servant,

Mrs. PAULINE LIEDER,
